“We can all be leaders.”
Marshall Elementary Changemaker

Collegiate Hall Changemakers interview Tulsa Health Department Executive Director (December 2020)
Our mission is to empower promising youth leaders to drive positive impact in Tulsa right now and into the future.

Our vision is a future where Tulsa is a model city for youth-driven impact. The youth are core catalysts for impact in their communities, and communities are actively engaged in identifying, developing, and empowering youth as leaders. Tulsa is consistently cultivating highly effective community leaders eager to empower successive generations.

*Boevers Elementary, Celia Clinton Elementary, Ellen Ochoa Elementary, Eugene Field Elementary, Grove Elementary, John Hope Franklin Elementary, Kendall-Whittier Elementary, Marshall Elementary, McAuliffe Elementary, McKinley Elementary, Moore Elementary, Skelly Elementary, Springdale Elementary, Collegiate Hall Charter School, East Central Junior High, KIPP Middle, Monroe Middle, Nathan Hale Junior High, Tulsa Honor Academy Middle, Will Rogers College Junior High, KIPP High, McLain High, Phoenix Rising Alternative School, Tulsa Honor Academy High

Contagious Leadership = Number of youth and adults not directly participating in Changemakers that helped plan or execute the impact project.

Elementary, middle, and high school Changemakers met twice a week virtually or in-person, engaging in a 25-session afterschool youth leadership development and action program that empowered them to make meaningful change in their schools and communities.

Changemakers leveraged their unique perspectives and conducted listening campaigns to identify community strengths and challenges, committed to well-researched solutions, and worked collaboratively to drive real and measurable change.
Changemakers initiated community impact projects on career/college pathways, homelessness, COVID-19, community safety, gender equality, animal welfare, police brutality, assisting single parents, student hunger, human trafficking, mental health, the environment, bullying, and more.

In the process, youth formed meaningful relationships with influential people and organizations, built skills in leadership and design thinking, and generated momentum for success in school and beyond. Changemakers also developed a high level of civic responsibility, personal agency, and connection to Tulsa.
Elementary School Spotlight: Grove

Topic: Homelessness
Project: Donate for a Donut

Choosing their topic:
- Interviewed friends, family, and teachers and discovered the majority of them thought homelessness was a major issue in their community.

Choosing their project:
- Surveyed 44 people in their community
- 60% said "being cold" or "harsh weather elements" were major issues
- Learned from Super Connectors that clothes were a major need in the homeless community

Donate for a Donut:
- Winter clothes drive for hats, gloves, jackets, and winter shoes
- Competition between classes at school – the class that collects the most items wins a donut party!

Results:
- Goal = 100 items
- Outcome = 1,500 items
- All donations went to Youth Services of Tulsa and The Caring Center

Next Steps:
- Continue raising awareness
- Organize another event
Middle School Spotlight: Will Rogers College

Topic: Skate Park Accessories
Project: Obtaining Skate Park Accessories at the Gathering Place

Choosing their topic:
- Listened to themselves and their peers
- Interviewed Mr. Rojas from the Gathering Place as a Super Connector

Choosing their project:
- Partnered with Mr. Rojas to collect 28 survey responses at the Gathering Place
- Learned from their survey which accessories kids at the Gathering Place would most like to have there
- Learned from their survey how frequently youth go to the skate park
- Researched other skate parks and the accessories they have

Obtaining Skatepark Accessories at the Gathering Place:
- Goal of obtaining a skateboard fixing station and bike fixing station
- Expected outcome of keeping kids safe and enabling kids to take care of their bike/skateboard/scooter
- Presented idea to Gathering Place staff

Next Steps:
- Continue to collaborate with Gathering Place staff to achieve the idea
High School Spotlight: Tulsa Honor Academy

Topic: Mental Health
Project: Colorful Mind Connector

Alumni Programming

At the beginning of the school year, we had 286 alumni. We now have 446.

Advisory Committee
This year, we merged our Alumni Committee into our Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee consists of alumni, parents/guardians, former Coaches, and community leaders. Their purpose is to provide strategic direction to the Tulsa Changemakers organization and plan, execute, and measure a host of alumni programs through four subcommittees: Career and College, Elementary, Communications and Branding, and Fundraising.

Highlights:
✓ Revamped Instagram and TikTok (@tulsachangemakers)
✓ Piloted elementary alumni opportunities information session
✓ Conducted survey of alumni about career and college interests
✓ Piloted career and college alumni information session

Zoom Advisory Committee Meeting (October 2020)
End of Year Celebration (June 2021)

Power of Youth
This is the second year of Power Youth, a “Tulsa Changemakers 2.0” that provides an opportunity for alumni to further develop leadership skills and collaborate with others on community impact initiatives. A small group of Changemakers met twice a month throughout the school year and worked on topics such as homelessness, student petition for a statewide mask mandate, and food deserts in north Tulsa.
TPD-Youth Working Group

Through six meetings from April-May, brought together 30 youth, parents/guardians, community partners, and community engagement officers to review Tulsa Police Department’s practices, programs, and trainings that relate to young people. Recruited critical mass of young people who have direct experience with law enforcement or been justice-involved. Created space of authentic youth-adult partnership.

Results:
✓ Identified guiding principles, values, and mindsets for officers.
✓ Advised officer practices around youth traffic stops, youth runaways, and youth experiencing mental health crises.
✓ Ideated several new TPD-youth programs.
✓ Engaged in open conversations about policing, including traffic stops, use of force, and qualified immunity.

Data:
❖ 100% of youth and community participants report they had an overall positive experience in the TPD-Youth Working Group.
❖ 100% of youth and community participants believe their work with the group will have an impact on TPD in the future.
❖ 100% of participating officers report they had an overall positive experience in the TPD-Youth Working Group.
❖ 100% of participating officers believe the youth and community partners provided valuable insight to TPD during their time in the program.

Next Steps:
➢ Create training video for officers from recorded interviews with youth participants and footage from open conversations.
➢ Continue to find opportunities to elevate youth voice in policing policies, practices, programs, and trainings.
Trainings, Consulting, and Partnerships

Trainings
1. Launched Listen, Listen, Act Training to support educators and youth programming professionals across the state and country adapt our Listen, Listen, Act curriculum to their unique contexts.

   LISTEN LISTEN ACT

2. Continued Teens on Board Training to support nonprofits in launching and sustaining Youth Action Teams (i.e., Youth Advisory Boards). Trained Teach For America Greater Tulsa, Impact Tulsa, and Greenwood Cultural Center.

3. Continued workshops on asset-based community development, authentic youth-adult partnership, and liberatory design thinking.

Next Year
1. In partnership with Ed Darby Foundation, launching a youth-led philanthropy program at Monroe Middle School in fall 2021. A small team of students will design and execute a philanthropic process to use $10,000 to better the Monroe community.

2. In partnership with Growing Together Tulsa, supported by Lobeck Taylor Family Foundation, and in consultation with Met Cares Foundation, launching intergenerational community organizing program in the Kendall-Whittier neighborhood in fall 2021. 20 youth and adults will build power in their community by learning and applying organizing and advocacy skills.
2020-21 Afterschool Program Metrics

“I learned that a place where student voice matters actually exists.”

We have three primary objectives of our afterschool program:

1. Develop the leadership, social emotional, executive functioning, and professional skills of promising youth leaders.
2. Empower promising youth leaders to drive real, long-term, sustainable, and measurable impact in their schools and communities.
3. Support adult facilitators to confidently and competently deliver a version of our Listen, Listen, Act curriculum that is best for their context.

Tulsa Changemakers uses four methodologies of measurement to assess the quality of our program and discover to what extent we are achieving our objectives.

1. Levels of Impact identifies how many Changemakers in our program are achieving the different levels of impact with their community impact initiatives.
2. Youth and parent/guardian surveys provide an opportunity for the youth to self-report and parents/guardians to assess on six metrics: 1) Youth Experience and Social Emotional Learning, 2) Leadership Identity and Confidence, 3) Hope and Resilience, 4) Leadership Mindsets, 5) Skills, and 6) Social Capital and Talent Retention.
3. The Weikart Center’s SEL YPQA (Social Emotional Learning Youth Program Quality Assessment) focuses on the extent to which our staff practices are achieving a quality youth program that nourishes an environment that facilitates social emotional growth.
4. Administrator surveys, Coach observations, Coach check-ins, Professional Learning Community meetings, and middle and end of year debriefs reveal the effectiveness of individual Coaches as well as the developmental impact. Levels of Impact, youth and parent/guardian surveys, and the SEL YPQA also provide insight.

A Note on COVID-19

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, every Changemakers cohort met virtually throughout the fall semester, and many continued virtually in the spring. This presented unique challenges for recruitment, program delivery, and impact project execution. Some cohorts were able to complete an entire semester of Changemakers and others got part of the way through. Despite these challenges, youth still developed meaningfully through the program, had a highly positive experience, and made an impact. We are so inspired by the resilience of the Changemakers and their Coaches as well as their steadfast commitment to community betterment.
Levels of Impact

Due to challenges caused by COVID-19, a few schools did not finish the afterschool program. Those schools are not included in the Levels of Impact below. Also, we’ve accounted for unique COVID-19 challenges by reducing our listening standards from 4 one-on-one interviews per student to 2 and 30 survey responses per cohort to 25.

Level 1: Conduct a Listening Campaign – 1) At least 2 one-on-one interviews per student, and 2) Conduct community-wide survey that gathers at least 25 responses.
- Intended Outcome: 100% cohorts achieve Level 1 by end of semester.
- Actual Outcome: 71% cohorts achieved Level 1 by end of semester.

Level 2: Complete an Engaged Action – 1) Plan for community impact project, 2) Execute one event, and 3) Measure effectiveness of that event using your own metrics.
- Intended Outcome: 100% cohorts achieve Level 2 by end of semester.
- Actual Outcome: 92% cohorts achieved Level 2 by end of semester.

Level 3: Execute multiple Engaged Actions – Plan for, execute, and measure effectiveness of multiple events for a community impact initiative.
- Expected Outcome: 10% achieve Level 3 by end of semester.
- Actual Outcome: 0% achieved Level 3 by end of semester.

The Children’s Hope Scale

The Children’s Hope Scale, published in 1997 by Rick Snyder, can be used to help measure hope in children. Research has linked hope with overall physical, psychological, and social well-being. Children who can identify a means to carry out goals (pathways) and the ability to initiate and sustain action towards goals (agency) are considered more hopeful.

Key 1 – Scores:
- All of the time = 6
- Most of the time = 5
- A lot of the time = 4
- Some of the time = 3
- A little of the time = 2
- None of the time = 1

Key 2 – Assessing Total Scores:
- 6-12 = Very low hope
- 13-18 = Slightly hopeful
- 19-24 = Moderately hopeful
- 25-30 = Highly hopeful
- 30-36 = Very high hope

All spring 2021 Changemakers took a retrospective survey that asked them to answer how they felt before and after participating in the afterschool program. The below scores are the average for all Changemakers who took the survey.

Quotes from Youth Surveys

“I learned that no matter where you come from or who you are you can make a change in the community.”

KIPP High School Changemaker Jermaine presents at Fall 2020 Virtual Pitch Nights (December 2020)

“This program was life changing. Now I have confidence in speaking out loud and I know that I can help.”

East Central Junior High Changemakers present at Fall 2020 Virtual Pitch Nights (December 2020)

“Tulsa Changemakers was the highlight of my year. I was feeling unmotivated to do anything at all and it was starting to make me feel a negative feeling. Once I started Changemakers everything started going uphill. It makes me feel like I’m a part of a group of people who love to take care of their community/world.”
Quotes from Parent/Guardian Surveys

“The most valuable thing that my daughter learned is to be more confident with herself and to speak in public.”

Phoenix Rising Alternative School Changemakers present at Spring 2021 Virtual Pitch Nights (May 2021)

“My son improved his speech and communication with other people as well as his parents. This program has made my son an excellent son and brother...this program is the best.”

Skelly Elementary Changemakers present at Fall 2020 Virtual Pitch Nights (December 2020)

“It pulled her out of her box to some degree and challenged her perspective. I believe she became more aware of her own voice and ability to use it to change her environment.”
Quotes from Teacher Surveys

“[She] is more reflective and thinks at a high level. She is also able to empathize and think about different points of view when participating in class discussions.”
Andi Gourd, Teacher at Skelly Elementary

What Problem Are We Trying to Solve?
- Help benefit people experiencing houselessness
  - Give to organizations that are already working on this problem
  - Help others give their loved ones a distance gift.

Nathan Hale Junior High Changemakers present at Fall 2020 Virtual Pitch Nights (December 2020)

“Participating in Changemakers has contributed to the students’ development by helping them become more confident, capable communicators who understand how to lead other student towards success.”
Karen Hafter, Teacher at Nathan Hale Junior High

“Students have grown in confidence. These students are much more likely to share out in class and are more likely to volunteer for other leadership roles outside of Changemakers…I have seen how they can think back to a root cause of a problem and come up with solutions for how to make it better. I think they feel more empowered than they had previously. They are more confident as readers and speakers.”
Carly O’Dell, Teacher at McAuliffe Elementary
Quotes from Administrator Surveys

“I have seen a positive change in the students that were involved in Tulsa Changemakers. They have broken out of their shell and they have built confidence. We also have noticed that the program gave the kids a purpose and motivated them to excel in class academically and supported them emotionally.”

Daisy Pokhel-Duran, Community School Coordinator at McAuliffe Elementary

McAuliffe Elementary Changemakers present at Spring 2021 Virtual Pitch Nights (May 2021)

“Students have become other centered and eager to serve their school community…It has helped students, some who have been troubled, to see themselves as leaders and realize they can affect their world in a positive way.”

Ronda Kesler, Principal at Kendall-Whittier Elementary

Boevers Elementary Changemakers collect dried goods for their school’s “Blessings Box” (January 2021)

“Changemakers was an excellent leadership opportunity for our scholars…They seemed to connect really well to taking tangible steps to making a difference in their community.”

Alex Webb, Principal at Tulsa Honor Academy High School
Quotes from Coach Surveys

“I was impacted by seeing my Changemakers gain so much confidence in how they can make changes in the world! After interviewing the mayors of Broken Arrow and Tulsa all on their own and seeing them run out of the room after the interviews so excited and just asking “Who can we talk to next? We want our message and project out there!” Just so empowered. It brought me so much joy to see that and help out!”

“Phoenix Rising Alternative School Changemakers doing the Marshmallow Challenge (January 2021)

“I loved getting to work with a small group of students and see their tremendous growth throughout the program. Changemakers encouraged me to build more project based learning and social emotional learning into my everyday teaching practice.”

“Flyer for Skelly Elementary Changemakers Dog Adoption Event (June 2021)

“More than anything else, it restored by belief in youth leadership…[My experience coaching Changemakers] elevated expectations for what students can do and gave me tools I could transfer to my classroom to help shift it in that direction.”
Growing Our Team

Emily Lara joined the Tulsa Changemakers team as Intern for most of the 2020-21 Program Year through a partnership with Workforce Tulsa. In her role, Emily managed our social media, conducted research, supported Coaches, helped recruit Coaches, and supported with our alumni programming. Emily helping increase our social media presence to 2,200+ followers across our Facebook, Instagram, and TikTok.

Emily is a Changemakers alumna, recently graduated as salutatorian from Nathan Hale High School, and recently graduated from Tulsa Tech with a cosmetology license.

“My experience as an intern for Tulsa Changemakers was amazing. Tulsa Changemakers taught me a lot of new skills and it helped me improve the ones I already had. I learned how to be responsible and how to manage my time with work and school.”

Lydia Jeong will join Tulsa Changemakers as Program Manager through Tulsa Service Year in August 2021. Tulsa Service Year brings recent college graduates to Tulsa for a year of high impact work in the service sector. In her role, Lydia will assist in the development, implementation, and expansion of our afterschool program, alumni programming, youth-led philanthropy pilot, and intergenerational community organizing pilot.

Lydia is originally from Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and recently graduated Magna Cum Laude from The University of Tulsa with degrees in Arts, Culture, and Entertainment Management and Music. As an undergraduate, Lydia interned with the Tulsa Ballet and Impact Tulsa, was Vice President of Communications and Director of the Diversity, Inclusion, and Equity Taskforce for Delta Gamma, and was an Orientation Leader.
